Stormont County Fair celebrating 150 years

Michelle O'Donohue
Record Contributor

NEWINGTON – The Newington Fairgrounds opened their gates on Labour Day weekend to large crowds of attendees who came out to celebrate the Stormont County Fair. It was a milestone year for the Fair. While celebrations have been taking place across the country all year to celebrate Canada 150, Stormont County Fair was also celebrating its 150th birthday. The Fair has been running since Confederation in 1867. The Fair made use of the holiday Monday, and boasted four full days of activities. Events included; magic shows, a baby contest, beef and horse shows, and a very popular 3-pitch tournament. Fresh off their time at the Chesterville Fair, Gable Bros. Shows put on the midway, which entertained guests of all ages. There was also great participation in the Homecraft exhibits.

The divisions of culinary arts, vegetables, and floral arrangements were particularly well represented. On Sat., Sept. 2, a large parade was planned with the theme of 150 years of the Fair. The parade did a tour through town, before concluding in front of the grandstands at the fairgrounds. Trucks from South Stormont Fire and Rescue led the convoy. Floats, children on bikes, and antique cars participated in the event. Several of the antique cars carried dignitaries to the main stage for the opening ceremonies. SDSG MP Guy Lauzon was the first to be dropped off. The parade concluded with a float from South Stormont Township. The float was pulled by Mayor Jim Bancroft on a tractor, with Deputy Mayor Tammy Hart, and Councillors Richard Waldroff, Donna Primeau and David Smith in period costume on the float itself.

Sheep shearing at Stormont County Fair

Carolyn Thompson Goddard
Record Correspondent

NEWINGTON – For many years Stormont County Fair has had sheep shearing demonstrations at the event. On Labour Day, Ted Redpath of Almonte, Ont., provided information and shearing demonstrations at the Fair.

Redpath began with a short history on the role sheep have played in human development, commenting how he feels that sheep were instrumental in the movement of humans into different areas of the globe. Sheep were, and to some extent still are, multipurpose animals providing humans with food, clothing, milk, fertilizer, hides to construct dwelling places and of course companionship.

Only a small amount of the world's wool is produced in Canada according to Redpath, with

Final OPP charity barbecue

The final 17th annual OPP Charity barbecue of the season was a great success, thanks to sponsor Lafarge. A total of $488 was raised for the Kemptville District Hospital. Eight local charities were supported with a total amount of $6,685.65 raised.

Support from W. O. Stinson & Son Ltd., B & H Your Independent Grocer and Jonsson's Your Independent Grocer was most appreciated, as well as that from the community, for helping the OPP Charity Barbecues' 17 years of success.

Proceeds of the evening will help the Roxborough Agricultural Society, host of the Avonmore Fair, with maintenance and other projects on the grounds on Fairview Drive in the village of Avonmore. The Avonmore Oktoberfest draws people from all over Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec, and has become a fall tradition in the area, which in the early years was held in a tent, so the September date was chosen to take advantage of the warmer weather in the evenings. A crowd favourite each year is the wide variety of desserts, which are included with the meal of German potato salad, sausage or German Beef Rouladen and sauerkraut, with a roll and coffee – all included in the ticket price. Tickets are $25 each and are on sale at Scotiabank locations in Casselman, Chesterville, Cornwall and Maxville. The bar will have a selection of German beers for your enjoyment. New this year will be the Keg Tapping which will take place at 5:30 pm, and there will be prizes for the best dressed in your Oktoberfest finest. There is lots of free on site parking available as well. For more information, visit www.avonmorefair.ca or the Avonmore Oktoberfest Facebook page or by calling 613-933-2793.

Stormont County Fair

The Fair's opening ceremonies followed the Parade. Lauzon started things off with opening remarks. He asked SDSG MPP Jim McDonnell to join him in presenting Fair President David Zummach with a certificate to recognize the work done for the Fair over the last 150 years. Following Lauzon, brief remarks were given by McDonnell, Bancroft, and North Stormont Councillor Jim Wert. The current Ontario Queen of the Furrow, Stormont Princess of the Furrow, and Stormont Queen of the Furrow also joined them on stage. Stormont Queen of the Furrow Kayla Manley spoke proudly of her history with the Fair. She explained that she has never missed a Fair, beginning 22 years ago with the baby contest, winning "chubbiest cheeks".

Zummach closed off the remarks, and focused on thanking volunteers for their hard work. He also highlighted the two new additions to the Fair this year, the Stormont Dome, and the new horse ring. He thanked the Horil family, and Dennis and Mary Fife for their contributions to the horse ring and the Stormont Dome respectively.

Following the opening remarks, Lauzon presented medallions to recipients from North and South Stormont to recognize individuals for their community involvement and contributions.

The event ended with a ceremonial opening of the time capsule that was buried 25 years ago. Zummach told the crowd that they intend to add new items to the capsule to mark this year's 150th, and then bury the container again to be dug up in the future.

A weekend of mixed weather did not keep the crowds from coming out to celebrate the Fair, and enjoy the history of this landmark birthday.

Past presidents arrive in style

Former serving presidents of the Stormont Agricultural Society were escorted to the grandstands to take their front place seats for the parade. David Brown towed the wagon by tractor.

Annable's Jewellery Thank you

Saturday, Aug. 26 the doorbell rung for the last time - an end to 38 years of Annable's Jewellery. I would like to thank all of my loyal customers over the years. The watch battery sale was just as important to me as the diamond ring sale. Smaller stores have to try twice as hard and your support and loyalty has been greatly appreciated. Thank you!

For the retirement party, Aug. 23, the turnout was amazing and very humbling. To the organizers, Eric, Sandy, Gloria, Vince, Dan and Haily, Bev and Owen, Linda, thank you. The kindness you have shown Diane, Thomas and myself makes you all best friends. You are fantastic people. Thanks to Stephen Ault, Guy Lauzon, Eric Duncan, Lisa Williams and Owen Shortt for their kind words. To Carrie Keller for the tangible memory. Beautiful!

To all who have sent cards, Tim's cards, gift certificates (I hate to cook), Seaway Valley Pharmacy staff, thank you.

Thanks also to Cup of Jo's for the goodies and Joy to Share (Francine Duncan).

The last three months, my sister Linda and brother Ron have stuck by my side and helped me greatly. Never underestimate the love and support of family. Thank you.

To Susan and Libby, words cannot express the level of friendship and respect I have for both of you. Libby was with me for 5 years and Susan for 28 years, my rock and friend. Thank you.

To my son, I know it wasn't easy to have dad working 6 days a week and see me even less at Christmas. Love you and wish you well in all you do.

Lisa, I wish you and your family well. You are a good teacher and you will succeed at both locations, I'm sure!

Thank you all & Best Wishes,
 Gary and Thomas Annable

Equipment arrives at WDMH

WINCHESTER – Last Thurs., Aug. 31, was an exciting day at Winchester District Memorial Hospital as the 10 new Automated Dispensing Cabinets (ADCs) were delivered.

“This delivery was a direct result of the generous spirit of our local communities,” noted Kristen Casselman, the Foundation’s Managing Director. “The Foundation originally set out to fundraise for five ADC units and a pill packager, but our donors stepped up once again. Because of that, we were able to fund the second phase of the project much sooner than anticipated, funding all 10 ADC units and the pill packager.”

The new ADCs, and accompanying pill packager, ensure the right drug or drugs are dispensed to the right patient at the right time. They are like a vending machine that dispenses pre-packaged medication. Only one medication drawer can be unlocked at a time – both when stocking the machine and when a nurse is getting a patient’s medication. This simplifies the process and increases patient safety.

WDMH staff are now working on a detailed implementation and training plan. The new machines are expected to be up and running by next spring. The release concluded with an appreciation to all who donated to the Foundation’s General Equipment Fund in support of the ADC project.

Annual charity fundraising event a success

MORRISBURG – Fifteen local and surrounding charities from Upper Canada Playhouse’s catchment area benefitted from the recent Charity Fundraising Event – the 17th such opportunity offered by the theatre. The Playhouse has assisted over 288 charities since holding this annual event, raising over $9,000 to help these charitable organizations with their important work. The event is not a fundraiser for The Playhouse but rather for the charitable organizations applying for assistance. Every season the Playhouse dedicates an entire performance of one of its shows to the community by offering tickets to 15 organizations to sell and retain the revenue for their organization.

Applicants must be charitable, non-profit organizations and have been chosen on a first come-first served basis. This year there was a substantial waiting list and efforts will be made in 2018 to ensure that those organizations that have not had the chance to receive tickets will be given that opportunity.

The following organizations received tickets this season for an Aug. 26 matinee performance of One Slight Hitch: St. John’s Anglican Church, UCW Dalhousie Mills, Friendly Circle Sr. Club, South Dundas Chamber of Commerce, Galop Canal Revitalization Committee, Lakeshore Dr. United Church, Linking Hands, Naomi’s Family Resource Centre, Osgoode Care Centre, Dundas County Hospice, Winchester Golden Years Society, Jiu Jitsu Special Events, Centretown United Church, Eastern Ontario Women’s Institute and Order of the King’s Daughters and Sons.

The 2018 Charity Fundraising Event will be announced in the local media on May 1.

CASTOR Country

By Tom Van Dusen

Picture perfect

At age 85, my now 91-year-old mother Shirley published her first and only book (to date), a collection of short stories called Mother’s Day Monkey.

It portrays her seven kids in a questionable light as they went about the business of growing up in Aylmer, Que., more than half a century ago. The title comes from a highly prized, mischievous, short-lived gift named Sidney that my brother Mark gave her one Mother’s Day.

Six years later, and Mom has a new major project, something she’s devoted much of her energy to over the past several weeks, a large solo art show in a downtown Ottawa gallery. It’s something she never even attempted in her spry, younger days. She’s had smaller shows, and collective exhibitions with other artists, but nothing quite like this.

She’s been busy finishing and framing paintings that have resided in her studio for years, and creating some new pieces. She’s enlisted several of her dutiful kids to help prepare with trips to the framer’s and the gallery.

The Shirley Van Dusen Retrospective is at Cube Gallery on Wellington St. in Ottawa now to Sept. 24, with the vernissage (opening) set for tomorrow night, Sept. 7. You can bet Mom will be right in the thick of it, sampling the white wine while welcoming old friends and discussing her work with prospective buyers. She has asked gallery owner Don Monet to keep the prices affordable, and so what if they don’t sell: “I’ll give them to you kids.”

And this big retrospective may not be Mom’s swan song. When I jokingly suggested local news coverage of the event might go something like this: “Aging Artist Pulls Together Last Hurrah”, she snapped back, “Who says it’s my last?”

Mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, artist, teacher, author, there’s no doubt that Mom has been impacted by the unavoidable ageing process to some extent. She’s a little frailer, more forgetful, perhaps more susceptible to weak turns... but aren’t we all! She needs help reaching the higher shelves and lifting heavier objects but, not to worry... she has seven kids to do those things for her.

Going back to her studies at the Ontario College of Art and her fashion design work with a long-gone Ottawa department store, Mom’s driving force has been painting landscapes and people, including many commissions of notable Canadians. She set her art aside while raising her brood and then returned to it with a vengeance, eventually teaching at the Ottawa School of Art and being recognized as a Fellow and Life Member of the Ottawa Watercolour Society.

Since Dad physically departed six years ago at age 90 – we think he’s still around in some other form - Mom continues to live alone in an Ottawa apartment building, proudly self-sufficient, thriving on the downtown hustle and bustle. And jumping on board any adventure that comes along!

In mid-August, she jetted off to Prince Edward Island for my niece Molly’s wedding on the beach at West Point. At the reception, she danced the night away, ate all the rich food she could get her hands on, and washed it short of climbing to the top of the tallest lighthouse on the island, now an inn where many of us stayed.

Over the years, the apartment building on Cooper Street became a warren of friends Mom had grown up with in Ottawa South when everybody knew each other, attended the same schools and went to the same social events. They came full circle into the same building and met many afternoons for a tippie and chat about the good old days.

Most of the old friends have passed on, the main hazard of outliving those around you. The latest to go was my Aunt Marg, Mom’s younger sister by seven years, to whom we said a final goodbye a few weeks ago.

Still remaining is her younger brother my Uncle Brian who lives with his wife Lorraine in an old Ottawa suburb where a family pool party took place recently and Mom held court. Like Mom, Brian is an artist and showed us around his studio tucked away behind the pool. Unlike his sister, traditionalist in style, Brian paints from the dark recesses of his imagination.

While losing Aunt Marg, her sidekick of more than 80 years, had to be a tremendous blow, mom internalized the pain and keeps moving forward one painting at a time.

The Road Home

Enjoying the summer vacation

Carolyn Thompson Goddard
Record Correspondent

There is a coolness in the air that speaks of Autumn and as the school buses are seen travelling down the highways and bi-ways we know for certain Fall is not far away.

Summer is traditionally a time to take it a bit easier, travel around the countryside with greater ease and bask in the heat of a warmer sun. The summer of 2017 will be remembered for years to come as one of the rainiest in recent memory. It seemed that every day somewhere in the United Counties precipitation fell in some form or other. In fact, someone mentioned recently how three days last week felt like the summer we had missed because there had been no rain and temperatures in the plus 25 degrees Centigrade.

Like most people, I had plans for July and August which included catching up on some reading in preparation for a course planned for the fall, maybe some visiting but as is often the case with me, keeping busy. I remember attending St. Clare’s one Sunday in June where the sermon, if memory serves me correctly, included the advice to spend time enjoying the summertime.

My initial thoughts were how reading, even academic texts, was most enjoyable to me and probably how I would spend most of the summer. Sounded very good to me, but after a bit I thought maybe the minister was correct and I should look for other enjoyable activities for the summer months.

So just in case you are wondering what I did on my summer vacation – here goes.

I spent a couple of hours most days blissfully developing my front garden, digging in the ground, planting seeds and flowers and watching while my constant canine companion Buddy would snack on grass, chase a bunny or two out of the flower bed or perhaps guard the house from existent and non-existent intruders.

I had people I care about come and visit me, some spending a few hours while others stayed a few days. I had a few projects that I had put off for maybe a year or two that were finally completed, attended various events for fun, and played computer games discovering how they weren’t really a mindless activity for they taught me to be patient and eventually that difficult level will be completed. I found a certain joy in throwing out several things which should have been heaved a few years ago.

Perhaps one of the most important things I did this year was just have some fun. Now in June I would have argued that fun for me included that reading, but over July and August I have discovered that it is okay to indulge yourself, within reason, in doing things you enjoy. For finding what it is that makes you happy and spending time doing just that! In years to come, the summer of 2017 will be not only be remembered in my mind for all the Canada 150 celebration events, but for the enjoyment I found in the simple pleasures of life in Eastern Ontario.

Sharing the love of horses

Kalynn Sawyer Helmer
Record Staff

MORRISBURG – Upper Canada Village’s Horse Lovers weekend drew in the crowds over the long weekend. The three-day event running from Sat., Sept. 2 to Mon., Sept. 4 hosted horses of all shapes and sizes for visitors to enjoy.

In the fairgrounds, a few lucky spectators were chosen by the Minister to become part of the elite society of horse whisperers. The Minister was known in Celtic traditions as the master horse whisperer who could make the horse do anything he desired with just one word whispered into its ear.

The new horse whisperer recruits were taught how to make their steed back up and come forward with just a touch, then walk and trot in a circle. After the training was complete, the recruits were given the opportunity to ride their horses and test their skills.

Around the Village, horses were giving carriage rides and visitors could see plowing demonstrations from the mighty Clydesdale.

On Saturday only, Lindsey Partridge of Partridge Horse Hill brought three of her horses, including the palomino Dreamer, to do demonstrations for the visitors. Dreamer is the star of the 2017 film Unbridled which won Best Feature Film at the Equus Film Festival in New York – a festival which celebrates the artistic and creative efforts involving the horse.

On all three days, visitors had the chance to experience a parade of horses through the Village. All of the activities and demonstrations helped to educate and inspire awe for the majesty that is the horse.

Trotting around

Horse and carriage rides were offered around the Upper Canada Village during Horse Lovers weekend from Sept. 2 to 4.

The secret word

Horse whisperers showed some lucky spectators how to handle their horses using gentle touches or motions, giving the illusion of a great horse whispering power, at the Upper Canada Village during Horse Lovers weekend.

Welcome back students

Rosie Backes
Minister of Communication
NDDHS – Welcome back students and staff of North Dundas! This is going to be an exciting year. We have already had a great Grade 9 orientation as student council, link leaders and the staff introduced the students to their new environment. Student council has lots planned for this upcoming year. These plans include spirit days, dances, and sports events. Also, as many of you may have noticed, North Dundas has a fresh new look, both inside and out. Coming

Orientation

The new and returning students had the opportunity to meet their student council members and play games to help get out any last jitters. Vice-Principal Mr. Deighton urged the students to "get involved. The aim of being here, by graduation, is to have your face on the wall" – a sentiment echoed by Ms. Williams who gestured to the larger-than-life photos surrounding the school.

Students also had the chance to meet the school's new Principal, Mrs. Angela Grandy. Grandy has worked extensively across the Upper Canada District School Board and the P.E.I. board. She brings with her a wealth of experience that is sure to serve both staff and students well.

After introductions and games, the students enjoyed a barbecue lunch before heading home and enjoying their last few days of summer vacation.

Thank You

My family and I wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for the kindness of friends and family during difficult times. So many reached out to us with loving thoughts and gestures and shared many great memories of Cheryl. The community that meant so much to Cheryl has provided comfort to our family.

President's Message

Harvest the excitement!

As well as celebrating the 159th edition of the Russell Fair, we are also celebrating the 150th birthday of this great country of ours. It is indeed a year to be a proud Canadian. The theme for this year's Fair is Canada 150+. Plus, meaning that we have a lot of pluses at the Russell Fair this year.

On behalf of the Executive and the Board of Directors of the Russell Agricultural Society, I am inviting you to celebrate and partake in the many varied activities, features and displays at the Fair. There is something for everyone.

Some of the highlights of the Fair include: Education Day, exhibits for the Home Craft division, Craft Beer Fest, Demolition Derby, Truck Pull, Tractor Pull, Livestock exhibits, Horse shows, Midway, and Entertainment throughout the Fair. New to the Fair this year are an Entertainment Tent, mini-wrestling, and a Truck Raffle which we kicked off on Canada Day.

The Russell Fair continues each year to teach the next generation the importance of agriculture in our lives as it is so much a part of our heritage.

On behalf of all directors, I would like to thank our sponsors and donors that support the Russell Fair, as well as everyone else involved. Our excellent group of hardworking volunteers put in countless hours of preparation and dedication to our committees, and they are very much appreciated.

Please feel free to check us out on our website at www.russellfair.com or on our Facebook page.

Hope to see you all at the Russell Fair.

Getting educated on agriculture

Education Days are a significant part of country fairs, and nowadays they may be the only times children get to see anything related to how their food is produced.

So Education Day at the Russell Fair, on Fri., Sept. 8, is a great opportunity for parents, children, and for school groups to get up close and personal with several types of livestock, and as the Fair's website says, "to smell that unmistakable smell and to learn about many things that we often take for granted, like where our food really comes from, how farm animals play an important role in our day-to-day life, why the people who work to bring us our food are so valuable, and even to learn about the endless career opportunities in the agricultural industry."

Of course the whole Fair is about celebrating agriculture. In the round barn there will be rare breeds of Canada displays and fowl exhibits. Animal exhibits will also be presented Saturday and Sunday in the round barn, including alpacas, goats, piglets, rabbits, chicks in the incubator, laying hens, and ducks. There will also be the usual 4-H competitions, showcasing beef and dairy cattle, not to mention the milking competition.

There will be many opportunities to touch live animals but the Fair Board recommends that visitors use the wash station and hand sanitizers provided. This isn't only to keep visitors healthy, but also protects the animals' health.

For the child fascinated by horses, there will be western riding, a gymkhana and the Eastern Canada Cutting Horse Association finals.

Of course, farming isn't only about animals. Also at the Fair will be St. Albert Cheese, Carleton Mushroom Farm, apple coring, wheat grinding, sheep shearing, raw wool processing, large machinery on display, antique machinery on display (everything was harder to do in the past), and a veterinarian and dairy educator will be on hand at Education Day to answer questions.

Win a brand new Chevy Silverado

The Russell Agricultural Society has recently announced the raffle prize of a brand new black Chevrolet Silverado 4 by 4 valued at $50,000 plus three $1,000 cash bonus prizes. Only 1,000 raffle tickets will be sold for the truck and will cost $100 a piece. The draw will take place at the Russell Fairgrounds on Sat., Oct. 21, at 7 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased online and at any Russell Agricultural Society event including the Russell Fair. All purchasers must be Canadian residents 19 years of age or older, and have the ability to pick up the truck at the society's location. Purchasers through online transactions will receive a digital confirmation and their physical tickets mailed to them within 10 business days.

Make sure to keep an eye out at the Fair and get a ticket before they are sold out. Further questions or concerns can be addressed to info@russellfair.com or 613-445-1742.

Classic cars and bikes on display at the Fair

On the morning of Sat., Sept. 9, starting at 9:30 a.m., the proud owners of distinctive cars and bikes will cruise onto the fairgrounds to share their passion for classic vehicles with the appreciative public. Entry is free with gate admission, and registration goes until noon. Awards will be presented at 1 p.m. So shine up the chrome and paint and head on down to the Fair.

Saturday night smash 'em up at Demolition Derby

On Sat., Sept. 9, starting at 7 p.m. the Russell Fair's favourite smash 'em up, bang 'em up event takes to the track in the Demolition Derby. Derby drivers deliberately ram their cars, which are no longer road worthy, until the last jalopy still running that makes contact with another driver wins the event.

As usual, the derby is run by Ontario Demolition Derby. For classes, rules, regulations and more information see <http://www.ontariodemolitionderby.com>.

There is a $50 per vehicle registration fee and preregistration is required, but there is a special Russell Township Championship Class open to Russell Township residents, with no entry fee.

Demolition cars and their support vehicles can come onto the grounds after 5 p.m.

The derby will be preceded by the always popular Power Wheels Demolition Derby for Kids.

Aerial trampoline a first at Russell Fair

Milord Entertainment has been at the Russell Fair with the stunning aerial acts for about the last 10 years. However, this year the company has something new to offer. From Sept. 7 to 10, the company will be onsite with the iFlip trampoline wall structure. The website explains, "iFlip is the ultimate aerial show. This quadruple-based structure with all its accessories, was the result of intensive creative research. The incredible 10 to 20 minute show contains aerial bungee, tramp-wall, sphere, power track, and more."

Four to five acrobatics will be at the Fair for the whole weekend performing the gravity defying act throughout the day.

Milord Entertainment was founded in 1990 and has 20 years of experience to ensure a great and entertaining show for fairgoers. Milord Entertainment President Yves Milord has even worked with Cirque du Soleil and Dragone Entertainment.

Horses at the Fair

Horse lovers will enjoy the Russell Fair, which features several equine events.

The Eastern Canada Cutting Horse Association championship will finish off its season at the Fair with competitions on Sat., Sept. 9, at 11 a.m. and Sun., Sept. 10, at 9 a.m.

Cutting horses are athletic and willing animals possessing an innate "cow sense" and ability to respond quickly and turn sharply, trained to keep a cow from returning to the herd. In this event, the horse and rider select and separate a cow out of a small group. When the cow tries to return to its herd, the rider loosens the reins and leaves it entirely to the horse to keep the cow separated, a job the best horses do with relish, savvy, and style.

The Super Gymkhana Western Games will be held Fri., Sept. 8, at 5:30 p.m. in the Horse Ring. This is a sport of patterned horse racing consisting of timed speed events designed to display precise, controlled actions and tight teamwork between horse and rider. The sport includes such events as pole bending where horse and mounted rider run a weaving or serpentine path around poles arranged in a line and barrel racing where the horse and rider attempt to complete a cloverleaf pattern around preset barrels in the fastest time. Entries must be in by Sept. 6 at latest one minute before midnight and include $2-million worth of liability insurance. Team entries will be accepted up to the completion of the Flag event. Entries are made at the Shilo Riding Club website at www.shiloridingclub.ca and all fees must be paid by 5:30 p.m. on the day of the show. General rules and regulations of the Russell Agricultural Society and the Shilo Riding Club apply. For rules, see russellfair.com

Tribute bands rock the Fair

Fans of Bryan Adams and the Tragically Hip are in for a treat at this year's Russell Fair, as the Friday night show features the Bryan Adams tribute band, Summer of '69, and the Hip tribute band, Road Apples.

The concert is age of majority only. Doors open at 7 p.m. at the arena on Fri., Sept. 8. Summer of '69 opens the show at 8 p.m. and Road Apples takes the stage at 9:45 p.m.

Summer of '69 describes itself as Canada's tribute to Bryan Adams. The band started in Toronto in 2004 and gained international recognition when the band was posted on the MySpace page of the man himself. The band has performed across Canada, the United States, and in the Caribbean.

Road Apples formed in the same hometown, Kingston, as the Tragically Hip, in 1992. The band quickly established itself as a highly sought after Hip tribute show. The band performed at the Fair several years ago where it was enthusiastically received.

Starting off the Fair on Thursday night is local band Odd Man Out.

On Saturday afternoon, Russell's own Charlie the Kid, aka Trevor Dubois, takes the stage with his funny blend of original tunes such as I Woke Up in Mooney's Bay. He too has performed at the Fair before, and was invited back.

On Sunday afternoon, Kiefer Layne performs from noon to 2 p.m., followed by Chicken Fried from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Entertainment for the kids at Russell Fair

Upbeat children's entertainment will make children laugh during the whole Russell Fair, Thursday through to Sunday.

Most of the children's entertainers will be in the Kids' Tent located beside the round barn and in the South Ball Diamond. Acts include Rock the Arts Puppet Show, Magical Marvin, Monkey Rock Music, and face painting by Jacquelin ten Hartog

In addition, Little Ray's Reptile Zoo will appear with some very special pets, some of which children can handle. Monalea Petting Zoo will offer pony rides and the chance to feed and pet some interesting and unusual livestock.

Of course children of all ages can also take advantage of all the other family-friendly events at the Fair. The kids can attend 4-H shows and watch as local 4-H youths and teens present their animals. They can also check out the vegetables, flowers, home crafts, artwork, photographs, baking, sewing, and everything else that children can enter in the ancient tradition of the agricultural fair. Take a look at the entries and decide what project to take on for next year.

Other child-approved events at the Fair include

Escape Rooms, Power cattle and horse Wheels Demo Derby, Rise 2 competitions, and don't Fame Talent Search, and forget the Robertson's there are also classic cars, Midway.

Rockets open tryouts with a great turnout

Jeff Moore
Record Staff

WINCHESTER — The North Dundas Rockets opened their tryouts on Mon., Aug. 28, at the Joel Steele Community Centre in Winchester. According to the Rockets' GM Rob Sadler, they had 25-30 players turn out for the hour and a half session. The Rockets also had as many on their second day on Tues., Aug. 29. Sadler also pointed out that all the players were locals including from places like Finch and Kemptville as well as North Dundas. Sadler said, "The goal was to generate some local interest in our club, and we did."

The exhibition schedule starts in Winchester at the Joel Steele Community Centre on Sat., Sept. 9, where the Rockets will host the South Grenville

Rangers at the Joel Steele Community Centre. The puck drop is at 7:15 p.m.

The Rockets then welcome the Metcalfe Jets to the Joel Steele Community Centre on Sun., Sept. 10, at 2:15 p.m. The Rockets then hit the road for two games, on Tues., Sept. 12, first to the R. J. Kennedy Arena in Ottawa to take on the Blackburn Inferno at 7:30 p.m. The Rockets' pre-season then wraps up in Prescott at the Leo Boivin Community Centre on Sat., Sept. 16, against the South Grenville Rangers.

Sadler went on to comment, "As a management group we are really looking forward to the exhibition schedule. I know from a General Manager point of view I am excited and nervous at the same time. There are a lot of hard decisions to make by the 16th involving some great local talent. With the turnout we have had regarding local players we are thrilled, but ultimately I can't find a spot for everyone, even some that are deserving, which means there will be some heart-wrenching decisions to make that I certainly don't take lightly."

Sadler continued, "We would also like to announce that we have traded for the rights of local forward Brad Stitt from South Mountain. Brad played his minor hockey in North Dundas as a youth before finishing in midget with the Ottawa 67's AAA team. Following minor hockey he was drafted by the Carleton Place Canadians of the CCHL, and proceed to play for the Perth Blue Wings and the Casselman Vikings

Rockets add Stitt

The North Dundas Rockets are proud to announce that Brad Stitt will be joining the team for this upcoming season. The 20-year-old forward began his competitive career with the Rideau St. Lawrence Kings Bantam AA, then to the Upper Canada Cyclones Bantam AAA; then he played Minor Midget AAA with the Ottawa Jr. 67's and was drafted by the Carleton Place Canadians. Stitt played 40 games for the Perth Blue Wings of the former EOJHL in 2013-14. Then in 2014-15 he played 30 games with the Blue Wings but was traded to the Casselman Vikings where he won the John Shorey Cup. He then bounced around playing for the Simcoe Storm of the NDJCHL, the Brampton Jr. B 99ers and again for the Storm in 2016-17 and moved to the Dundas Blues both of the PJHL. Stitt will bring leadership and experience to the Rockets.

of the CCHL2 where he won the league championship. Ultimately he ended up playing last year for the Dundas Blues in southern Ontario before coming home on a job placement this season. We are expecting Brad to have a positive impact on our team, and are looking forward to adding another local talent to the roster."

Reminder: Once again the Rocket's fundraising golf tournament will be held at Cedar Glen Golf Course, Sept. 16. Anyone interested can contact Sadler at 613-809-5771 or Kevin Byers at 613-223-0620.

EMBRUN — The Embrun Panthers had a very busy week with four pre-season games. They travelled to Casselman for the first game to take on the defending champions on Tuesday night before heading to Winchester to take on the Hawks on Thursday night. The Panthers then welcomed the Vikings on Friday night and the Hawks on Sunday afternoon.

Panthers 10 Hawks 1

The Embrun Panthers travelled to the Joel Steele Community Centre in Winchester for their second CCHL2 pre-season game on Thurs., Aug. 31 to take on the Hawks. The Panthers opened their pre-season with a victory over the defending CCHL2 champions the Casselman Vikings by a score of 8-1 and looked to see if they could beat another established CCHL2 team.

For the Hawks it was their first pre-season game. The Panthers opened the scoring just 1:58 into the opening frame as Andrew Burke fired one home from Noah Johnston to take a 1-0 lead. Noah Haymes gave the Panthers a 2-0 lead at 2:39 from Jeremy Barrie and Jacob Lamont.

The Panthers took a three-goal lead when Sam Tremblay slapped one to the back of the net from Barrie and Burke at 5:48. The Panthers made it 4-0 when Nathan Brown sniped one from Sam Wilson and Johnston at 8:42 and 5-0 at 13:38 as Joey Larcher finished from Tremblay and Mark Morrison.

The Panthers closed out the scoring with a power-play goal when Tremblay lit the lamp for the second time in the period to make it 6-0 at 16:37. The Panthers took the 6-0 lead into the first intermission.

After the break in-between the periods, the Hawks finally got one to go as Dillon Clemen fired one home from Griffin Patterson and Miguel Pare just 50 seconds into the second period. That goal didn't seem to faze the Panthers as they made it a 7-1 game when Burke scored his second of the game from Frederick Lefleche and Morrison at 7:05.

The Hawks couldn't keep up with the Panthers as they took a seven-goal lead again as Haymes scored his second of the game from Justin Belanger and Justin Brennan on the power play at 9:26. The Panthers made it 9-1 when Johnston scored from Lamont and Larcher at 15:23.

The Panthers closed out the scoring in the second as Barrie scored with just 38 seconds remaining from Lefleche to make it 10-1 heading into the second intermission. The Hawks played their best period of the game in the third but couldn't find the back of the net but a positive they did not give up a goal either.

The Panthers took the game 10-1 winning their second straight pre-season game. The Panthers' goalie, Danik Gervais picked up the win making 11 saves on 11 shots and suffering the loss in the Hawks goal was Daniel Cristea making 15 saves on 21 shots. The Hawks' goalie Conor Lahey played the third period stopping all 18 shots he faced.

Panthers 8 Vikings 1

The Embrun Panthers travelled to the J. R. Brisson Complex in Casselman to take on the Vikings in their first pre-season game of 2017 on Tues., Aug. 29, in the CCHL2. The Panthers moved up a division after playing last season in the NCJHL as a Junior C team. The Panthers bought out the Metcalfe Jets at the end of last season to join the CCHL2 so they had a few players remaining from that team.

The Vikings went with 11 veterans either from their team last year or a few they picked up after the Clarence Beavers were sold to Carleton Place. The Panthers opened the scoring when Noah Johnston scored a power-play goal from Sam Wilson and Justin Belanger just 1:44 into the first period. The Panthers took a two-goal lead as Sam Tremblay slapped one home from Frederik Lefleche at 12:31.

The Panthers took a 3-0 lead when Noah Lafranchise pounded one to the back of the net from Noah Haynes just 13 seconds later. The Panthers took a four-goal lead when Nathan Born slid one home from Jacob Lamont and Jonathan Paquette at 17:33. The Panthers took the 4-0 lead into the first intermission.

The Panthers opened up a five-goal cushion as Haymes fired one to the back the cage from Lamont at 6:43 of the second period. The Panthers kept the pressure on the Vikings making it 6-0 as Mark Morrison scored a power-play goal at 12:34 from Lefleche. The Panthers took a 6-0 lead into the second intermission.

The Vikings finally got on the score sheet as Evan Mantha blasted one to the back of the net from Oliver Brunet just 58 seconds into the third period to make it 6-1. The Panther's Haymes scored his second goal of the game at 12:33 on the power play from Justin Gagnon. The Panthers added another power-play goal at 14:37 as Gagnon scored from Tremblay to make it 8-1. The Panthers took the game 8-1 firing the first shot at what should be a great rivalry.

The teams combined for 122 minutes in penalties with the Vikings going 0-7 on the power play and the Panthers were 4-10. Picking up the win in the Panthers' goal was Devin Carchidi with 11 saves on 11 shots. Suffering the loss in the Vikings' goal was Tom Meyerhans making nine saves on 13 shots.

The Casselman Vikings travelled to the Palais des Sports in Embrun to take on the Panthers on Fri., Sept. 1, in their third CCHL2 pre-season game. The Vikings went into the game with a one and one record after losing their first game to the Panthers and then beating the Char-Lan Rebels in their second.

This was a chance to get back at the Panthers after an 8-1 loss in their first meeting. The Vikings opened the scoring when Sebastien Plante blasted one to the back of the net from Olivier Brunet and Joel Hunt at 3:11 of the first period to take a 1-0 lead.

The Vikings made it 2-0 when Gabriel Rousselle slapped one home from Joey Heath at 8:26. The Vikings took a three-goal lead when Ryan Sabourin scored at the 11-minute mark. Plante scored his second goal of the game at the 15-minute mark to make it 4-0 for the Vikings from Alex Charlebois.

The Vikings were not finished with the Panthers as Hunt sniped one from Charlebois at 17:47 and Plante completed his hat trick at 18:11 from Luke Paquette. The Vikings took the 6-0 lead into the first intermission.

The Panthers finally got on the scoreboard when Luigi Peloso scored from Noah Johnston at 5:03 of the second period. The Vikings were able to hold the Panthers off the score sheet for the rest of the period taking a 6-1 lead into the second intermission.

There was no scoring in the third period as both teams stuck to the defensive style of play. The Vikings got their revenge against the Panthers with a 6-1 victory. Picking up the win for the Vikings were Zach Paputakis and Tom Meyerhans. Suffering the loss in the Panthers' goal was Jean-Sebasien Gratton.

Vikings 5 Rebels 3

The Casselman Vikings welcomed the Char-Lan Rebels to the J. R. Brisson Complex on Thurs., Aug. 31, for their second CCHL2 pre-season game. The Vikings dropped their first game 8-1 to the Embrun Panthers and looked to turn things around while the Rebels were playing their first exhibition game.

The Rebels got on the board first with just 32 seconds remaining in the opening frame and took a 1-0 lead into the first intermission. The Rebels made it 2-0 just 1:48 into the second period but the Vikings got one back at 3:59 as Joel Hunt slapped one home from Brendan Doherty and Isaac Barr on the power play to make it 2-1.

The Vikings tied the game at 2:20 of the third period as Yanik Dicaire blasted one home from Carter Malette and Graeme Buffone. The Vikings took their first lead of the game as Dicaire scored his second of the game from Malette and Ethan Wensink at 8:35 to take it 4-3.

The Vikings closed out the scoring with just 36 seconds remaining as Evan Mantha drifted one to the back of the net from Doherty and Plate on the power play and took the game 5-3. Picking up the win in the Vikings' goal was Zach Paputakis.

Up next

National Trucking Week September 3-9, 2017

Going the distance to deliver excellence

TRUCKING

Keeping our truck drivers safe while on the job!

Canada is gearing up for another round of National Trucking Week (September 3-9, 2017)! Sponsored by the Canadian Trucking Alliance (CTA) in conjunction with the country's provincial trucking associations, this annual event honours the 400,000 Canadians who work hard to keep the nation's freight moving and raises awareness of common challenges truck drivers face that compromise their safety.

For example, a hazard alert issued by Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) noted the prevalence of fatal or serious injuries to truck drivers resulting from unstable freight at worksites not under the control of the driver's employer. Site operators have a responsibility to ensure their premises are safe and secure. Does your place of business meet the following criteria?

Ideal workplace conditions

- Docking grounds are levelled and paved
- Light is abundant and provides good visibility
- Tarping grounds are enclosed and fall protection measures are in place
- Protection from harsh weather conditions (high winds, heavy rain, etc.) is available
- Dock operators are well trained to assist in the safe handling of freight

Approval sought for 400+ homes in Russell Village

Candice Vetter
Villager Staff

RUSSELL – At a council meeting held Mon., Aug. 14, the Township of Russell discussed an application for a subdivision and zoning change which could add over 400 homes to Russell Village, as well as some commercial space.

The meeting also met the requirements for a public consultation on the topic, and about 30 residents attended, many of whom asked questions after seeing the presentation.

The project is proposed by Melanie Construction and would be built on the village's north end, stretching from North Russell Rd. all the way to Eadie Rd. It is described as Part of Lot 13, Conc. 3, Russell. The site requires zoning approval and the permission of the United Counties of Prescott-Russell, both of which are likely to be granted. Melanie Construction has prepared a plan of the subdivision which can be seen on the Township's website, by looking at the background documents to go with the agenda of the Aug. 14 meeting.

The plan includes 427 lots, 325 of which would be single family homes, 34 of which would be semi-detached, and 68 of which would be townhomes. This new subdivision will connect by road to the Russell Trails subdivision.

Four blocks of the new plan are designated for commercial use on North Russell Rd., and a small park is planned for the east side.

The site is currently zoned R1, and the townhomes and the plan requires zoning changes to R2, R3 and commercial.

Council would need to allocate water and sewer units, and a possible fish habitat has to be investigated by South Nation Conservation. Biologists are to confirm if the watercourse is a stream or drain or a fish-spawning area. Early investigations will be peer reviewed by SNC, which will take a closer look in the springtime. Council asked if the stream will be filled in if it turns out not be natural habitat and were told that depended on the SNC's outcome. The existing stormwater pond will be expanded if needed.

Questions from the public included asking when the park land would become available to the people moving in, because in the past, parks and play equipment have taken a very long time. Planner Dominique Tremblay said it depends on the builder phases, but the Township is trying to get them to put in the park during phase one of the building process and that the park is included in the plan of the subdivision.

Councillor Jamie Laurin

asked if there is something in public policy about servicing that park sooner rather than later. Parks and Recreation director Celine Guitard answered that they usually try to service parks as soon as possible, and that they were doing a park study right now.

Laurin persisted, asking if the Township had something in policy to tell future councils not to forget to put parks in these new development areas. "In 10 years you're not sitting at this table anymore and no one remembers...this park wasn't done."

Resident Catherine Shane said that over 400 homes would probably add about 700 cars, and asked if the developer is going to put in a roundabout to help traffic on North Russell Rd., and if there were any financial provisions, not just based on current tax dollars, but all these homes as well. Mayor Pierre Leroux said there will be a traffic study, and that if the study means changes, usually the developer does add turning lanes, to which Shane responded, "We're not just talking turning lanes."

Other concerns brought forward include consideration of the bike trail, because everyone will be crossing North Russell Rd. with bicycles to get to the trail, and a fire safety concern. This new development will have large blocks and access out on

Potential traffic issues with new subdivision

These two photos show the short distance between the approximate entrance road of the proposed new subdivision on the north side of Russell Village. Above is a photo of the site where a house has been recently torn down. The photo was taken from the driveway of Russell High School. The lower photo is the school's driveway, taken from the driveway at the site. Residents are concerned about the combination of the three schools in the northern section of the village and a main access road for over 400 new homes in such close proximity.

North Russell Rd., right across from the entrance to Russell High School. This led to the issue of fire safety and bringing fire trucks into a large area with limited connections to major streets.

Betty Walsh of North Russell Rd. stated that she had two different maps, with an earlier one that was given to her mother when she sold the land in 2004. That one showed a plan for a 60-unit seniors home. Walsh said the reason her mother agreed to sell was she approved of the purpose and both her mother and father saw it as providing a reasonable place for seniors to live in the future. Walsh said the site was mapped and blueprints drawn, and now roads were going right through. "Now it's changed back," she said. "Why the flip flop?"

Trail paving moving ahead

Despite objections by the public who liked using the eastern end of the Russell trail due to its natural beauty and soft surface, which was previously unpaved, the Township is going ahead with paving it to make it a faster surface suitable for bicycles. The decision to pave it remained in place because both the Township and GPR MP Francis Drouin claimed the public funding would be withdrawn if the project was changed. The Villager has asked Heritage Canada for a clarification, but has not received a response. The public portion of the trail ends at Route 200.

Catch the Ace coming to Russell

EMBRUN – The Russell Kin Club has announced that Catch the Ace, a game of chance similar to the wildly popular lottery Chase the Ace which has swept Eastern Canada, will be starting locally. The first draw will be on Sun., Sept. 17, at Étienne Brûlé Brewery, 893 Notre Dame St. in Embrun. Thereafter, draws will be every Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

The jackpot accumulates from week to week until it is won, and that game is over. Each week participants buy lottery tickets. The funds from ticket sales are divided into three parts. The organizers keep 50 per cent for community charities, the winner of the weekly draw takes 20 per cent and 30 per cent goes into the jackpot. The weekly winner also then draws a card from a deck of cards and wins the accumulated jackpot if the Ace is drawn. If not, the reduced deck is kept for the following week's game.

That time of year again

English board schools opened for classes on Tues., Sept. 5. Here students Brayden Reid, Alex Butland, Victor Goodwin, Zach Nolan and Ian Pearson are shown outside Russell High School. They are attending for their final year.

Participants buy tickets each week. After each draw, all the used tickets are discarded. The only thing which stays consistent is the deck of playing cards (which still holds the Ace of Spades) which stays the same, minus the one card per week which was picked/drawn. Each week players can buy as many or as few tickets as they wish.

Tickets are $5 each and available at Étienne Brûlé Brewery, Russell Foodland and Pronto Convenience Store.

In a telephone interview with The Villager, Walsh explained further. "It's heartbreaking," she said. "It felt so good that Dad's last wishes would be respected, but the developer just turned around. They got their way so they can do what they want now." She was also saddened to see the house her mother was born in be torn down. She said that after the deal was signed, the buyer said they needed access to the main road. "So mom gave him her laneway, not as part of the sale but as a gift. Later when she sold the house too she was told she needed to be out within two years, so she came to live with me."

Walsh also shared an anecdote, saying seven years ago her sister went through a similar transaction. (Walsh's house, her mother's and her sister's had been all lined up along North Russell Rd., now only Walsh's remains.) "Dad built my sister's house when she was born. When she sold it she did it with the understanding it would be the new library. Something good for the town!" said Walsh. "But it was just money grabbing." She is concerned about the loss of wildlife habitat and about the traffic. "We already don't book appointments near 2:30 or 3 p.m." she said. "Because of the school traffic."

Walsh also said she does not have town-supplied water, and she had better get it if all these new houses do, and in addition, she expects surface water flooding to be a problem. "We've already had problems," she said and described an incident where water was pumped onto weeping tiles and ended up flooding her house. "What are they going to do with all this water?"

Walsh is not opposed to development, but she said she would like it to be done with careful consideration of all the issues.

The public can comment on the proposal by sending an email to sboudreault@prescott-russell.on.ca. The comments must be received before UCPR Council approves the new subdivision, which will be at a time of their choosing. Individuals can also ask to be kept informed of the approval progress on the issue.
